

WIND POWER

Air is all around us.
We can't see the air, but there are other ways of knowing that the air is there.

Place your hand over the fan.
Can you feel the air moving?

Wind is air that is moving quickly. If the wind is moving fast enough, it has the power to move other objects, like the yellow fan or the parachute on the table.